

Please reject any bill which seeks limitation on satellite radio local programming. Satellite radio is an important technological development and revolutionary consumer product. It should not be threatened by the NAB who will undoubtedly be impacted by the success of satellite radio. Let consumer demand and the marketplace dictate the services radio users will enjoy, not lobbyists and politicians.